Awarding of Scholarship(s) - The scholarship shall be available to members of local unions affiliated with the Idaho State AFL-CIO. Scholarship hopefuls must be nominated by their local president. A member's eligibility shall be based on their local union's good standing with the Idaho State AFL-CIO. The local union shall be in good standing if their per capita tax is paid to date.

The recipient of the scholarship need not be present to be eligible. Recipients will be notified within one week of selection which will take place in April 2018 and the scholarship recipient's name(s) will be announced at the Annual Convention Banquet on Tuesday evening in June.

Scholarship Amount – PLEASE NOTE: A full ride scholarship will pay for transportation to and from the Grace Carroll Rocky Mountain Labor School site and the registration fee (which covers room and board). All travel arrangement will be made through the Boise CLC office in advance. No expenses will be reimbursed without prior approval from the Boise CLC. This scholarship covers airfare OR mileage depending upon which is the least expensive between the two options. If more than one student travels in the same vehicle, only one travel fee will be paid. Students receiving the scholarship will be required to be present for the entirety of the school session in order to be considered as complete (unless there are extenuating circumstances approved by the Boise CLC).

All union members are highly encouraged to attend the Grace Carroll Rocky Mountain Labor School. The experience is unparalleled in the vast knowledge, history and background it provides to attendees!
